

All Fronts Re-enactment Association

(formerly known as Axis Forces re-enactment Association)

Mission Statement and Purpose as of September 2007.

Mission Statement

The Mission of the All Fronts Re-enactment Association is to foster relations between ALL 20th Century Living Historians and re-enactors and to bring about a wider understanding of the genre to all who may come into contact with us.

The All Fronts Re-enactment Association wishes to break down traditional barriers and outdated values and replace them with new, workable ones that drive the hobby forwards, allowing more people to engage and share in the experiences to be had.

The All Fronts Re-enactment Association promotes understanding, education and respect amongst all races, religions, social groups and cultures by advocacy, conflict resolution, education and entertainment.

Purpose

To promote 20th Century Living History and to bring together the disparate elements already engaged within.
